A DECADE OF YONDER LIVE

09/29/2001 - Boulder Theater - Boulder, CO

Night 3 of the first Kinfolk Celebration, held just after the national tragedy of 9/11. There was something so important about people gathering together from all around the country in the art deco space of the Boulder Theater, and you could tell that some significant healing was taking place. This show features the debut of a couple new Beatles' covers, including the band's only performance of Yellow Submarine. The final song of the single-mic encore had me standing at the rail reduced to tears; just listen to the lyrics and you'll understand why. - Pastor Tim
